(c) A certificate that the candidate is a native of Mysore.

The candidates must be prepared to undergo—

(a) A qualifying examination in Mathematics which will be held in the Conservator's Office, "Cola Lodge," Bangalore, early in July 1919, on a date to be fixed by the President of the Forest College, which will be communicated in due course. The examination will consist of two papers, one in Arithmetic and Algebra and the other in Geometry and Trigonometry to each of which three hours will be allowed. The standard in Mathematics is a practical knowledge of Arithmetic, Algebra up to and including quadratic equations and simple problems, Mensuration, Geometry (including the first three books of Euclid) and elementary Trigonometry including the solution of triangles and the use of logarithms. No candidate, who fails to obtain half the full marks in each paper will be considered to have passed.

(b) Such physical tests, and test of the knowledge possessed by the candidate in English as the Conservator of Forests may prescribe.

4. The candidates selected will be required to undergo a course of practical training in the forest for six months under the orders of the Conservator of Forests before joining the Forest College about April 1920.

5. While under practical training, they will receive a fixed travelling allowance of Rs. 50 per mensem and should they give satisfaction during this period, will be deputed to Dehra Dun and given—

(a) a monthly stipend of Rs. 100 during the College course of 24 months.

(b) a single second class railway fare and reasonable charges on account of luggage on journeys to and from Dehra Dun.

Note.—No travelling allowances for journeys on tour will be admissible, except when such journeys are made over long distances by rail.

6. While Government are under no obligation to employ the candidates after they successfully undergo the course, they will have a lien on their services for a period of five years. The total amount of stipend awarded will have to be refunded if the candidates fail to serve the Government for a period of at least five years, if required, or if being entertained in service, they are removed within this period for misconduct. Before proceeding to Dehra Dun, the candidates will be required to execute an agreement to this effect.

7. For further particulars, apply to the Conservator of Forests.
